

What's the burning issue for 164 New Hampshire towns?

Acworth
Albany
Allenstown
Alstead
Alton Amherst
Andover Antrim
Atkinson
Barrington
Bartlett Bath
Bennington
Benton Bethlehem
Boscawen Bradford
Brentwood Bridgewater
Bristol Brookfield Brookline
Campton Canaan Candia Canterbury
Center Harbor Charlestown Chester
Chesterfield Chichester Colebrook
Columbia Conway Cornish Croydon
Dalton Deerfield Derry Dorchester
Dublin Dummer Dunbarton Durham
East Kingston Easton Eaton Effingham
Enfield Epsom Exeter Fitzwilliam
Francestown Franconia Freedom Fremont
Gilford Gilmanton Gilsum Goffstown Gorham
Grantham Greenfield Greenland Greenville
Groton Hampstead Hampton Hampton Falls
Hancock Hanover Harrisville Harts Location
Hebron Henniker Hillsborough Hinsdale Holderness
Hollis Hopkinton Hudson Jackson Jaffrey Kensington
Kingston Lancaster Lee Lisbon Littleton Londonderry
Loudon Lyme Lyndeborough Madbury Marlborough
Meredith Middleton Milan Milford Milton Mont Vernon
Moultonborough Nelson New Boston New Castle
New Durham New Hampton New Ipswich New London
Newbury Newfields Newmarket North Hampton Northwood
Nottingham Orange Orford Pembroke Peterborough Piermont
Pittsfield Plainfield Plaistow Plymouth Randolph Richmond
Rollinsford Roxbury Rumney Rye Salisbury Sanbornton Sandwich
Seabrook Sharon Shelburne South Hampton Springfield Stoddard
Strafford Stratford Stratham Sugar Hill Sullivan Sunapee Sutton
Tamworth Temple Thornton Tilton Tuftonboro Wakefield
Walpole Warner Washington Webster Westmoreland
Whitefield Wilmot Wilton Winchester Windham
Wolfeboro Woodstock

Global Warming

In 164 Town Meetings across New Hampshire, voters came together and passed a resolution calling for strong federal action to combat global warming. Candidates are crisscrossing the state stumping for votes. New Hampshire is listening...

www.HeatisOn.org

